

About us

Our story starts about 9 years ago. Josh and I (Sarah) met while attending a wedding in Tennessee, it was love at first sight! (well for Josh anyways) we got married young and have loved the opportunity it gives us to grow together and be fun energetic parents, in May 2023 will be our 5-year wedding anniversary. we got pregnant with Aaron within our first year of marriage and he was such a miracle baby! He has been the light of our life ever since, and he asks for a sibling everyday. After almost 3 years of trying unsuccessfully to get pregnant for the second time, we felt a calling to adopt. we want to grow our family and bring hope to someone at the same time. We want to be with you every step of the way with support in anyway, and care for your sweet baby to the best of our ability.

Meet Josh & Sarah

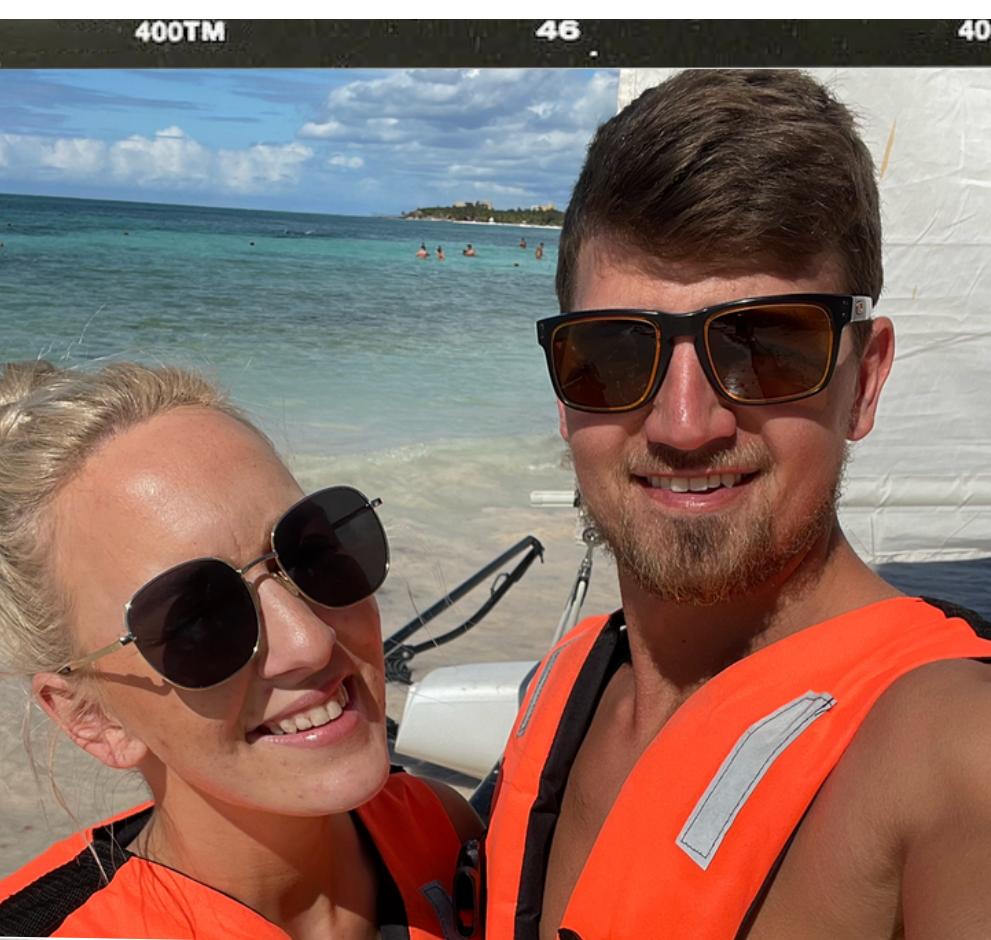

Sarah is positive, compassionate, and ready for anything, she loves making memories and traditions.

She believes In letting children grow and explore the world while providing calm, gentle guidance. She works from home and loves the privilege of being with Aaron all day. She loves to plan outings and explore our homestate.

Josh is an incredible husband and father.

He's the kindest human ever! loves to play with Aaron whenever he is home from work, and always put family time first. He works hard and does everything he can to provide for our family. He believes that parenting is an equal partnership, and he's very involved in everything. Aaron is such a daddy's boy and I love watching their relationship grow

Aaron is a fun-loving boy with a silly personality. He loves to play with his cousins (he has over 30!! We love our big families) He's currently obsessed with anything rockets or airplanes, riding his bike, and making crafts. He wants to know how everything works and help all the time. You can find him helping mom bake or do laundry, He's friendly, sweet, and absolutely loves babies!

We promise

Life holds a lot of uncertainties, so while we can't promise we'll be a perfect family, we can guarantee a few things:

We promise to give your child every chance to succeed and fulfill their dreams. We promise to teach your child the value of contributing to society in a structured church setting, the home, and their surroundings. We promise that your child will know about the brave choices you've made for their benefit. We intend to tell your child how much they're loved by more than just us.

We promise to raise your child in the same manner we were raised with love, respect, compassion, kindness, constructive discipline, encouragement, and a passion for success.

Thank you for considering us. We may not have met, but we're honored that you've read this far on our profile. We look forward to our paths crossing as God intends!

Love,

Josh, Sarah and Aaron
