

Johnhan & Jeanne

Hi!

We are a fun-loving, easy-going couple hoping to add one more little one to our family.

We have a zest for life and love to play, imagine, create, and be adventurous.

We hope you'll get to know us better through our stories, just as we hope one day we may get a chance to get to know you better.

Our Story

We met online nearly 9 years ago after chatting everyday for several weeks. When we finally met, our first date was over 7 hours long. After that we were inseparable and married 3 years later. In the years that we've been together, we have gone on many adventures- from swimming in a bioluminescent lake in Jamaica to exploring Machu Picchu. Our biggest adventure though, has been raising our three year old son Jordan and our dog Squeegie. Being parents has taught us that life's greatest joys are in the simplest things- jumping in rain puddles, dancing in our pajamas, and at the end of the day, spending some quality time with just the two of us.

We are so excited to share our love of play and adventure with another little one.

We loved exploring Machu Picchu and learning about Inca history in Peru.

One of our favorite adventures was riding a vespa from Paris to Versailles.

We visit Lake Tahoe almost every winter for the snow and most summers for boating on the lake.

We visit Hawaii nearly every year- we all love the warm waters and laid-back vibe of the island.

Here's Jeanne hiking with our son in Yosemite, CA when he was just a baby.

Meet Johnhan

Johnhan is honest, loyal, and always sees the best in people and situations. He shows love by doing and is truly the most present father that I know. During the day, Johnhan is a senior engineer at a biomedical device company, making life saving technologies. When he gets home though, his silly side comes out and he can play with Jordan for hours. He is the fun dad that the neighborhood kids and our nieces and nephews love to hang out with.

Johnhan was on the swim and water polo team in high school. He loves snowboarding, football, and basketball. He looks forward to sharing this love of sports and encouraging our children to lead active, healthy lives.

Johnhan is super handy and enjoys building and wood working. He even built our pantry from scratch, a sandbox for our son, and more.

Johnhan enjoys so many outdoor activities. He tried longboarding in Hawaii and was a natural.

Meet Jeanne

Jeanne is so caring and nurturing to me, our son, and our dog. She is our family's fun director and is always thinking up new places to explore and fun things to do. She is also a really great cook and loves to entertain our friends and family. For work, she is a manager at a top University, helping her students make the most of their time in school. Her work is flexible and allows her to work from home one day a week. Jeanne looks forward to spending special one-on-one time with each of our children.

Jeanne is also very creative and loves to decorate our home with art, including her own original paintings. Jeanne also loves gardening and growing fruits and vegetables. She has encouraged our son to enjoy art and gardening and is excited to show another little one the joy of creating and growing.

Jeanne is a great cook! Here she is making a seafood boil for our friends.

Jeanne is so goofy, as seen in this pic, taken at the Maui Ocean Center in Hawaii. Our son definitely gets his silliness from her!

Our Son Jordan

Our son Jordan is such a happy, silly little boy. His current interests center around trains and construction vehicles. Jordan loves to be outside – playing in his sandbox or riding his balance bike. He loves reading before naps and bedtime, laughing, and swimming.

We love taking Jordan on bike rides, to the zoo and toddler-friendly amusement parks. We also take regular family vacations- Jordan has already visited Hawaii twice, Yosemite National Park, San Diego, and many weekend trips to the beach. We look forward to including another little one into the family fun and making memories together!

We have a season pass to Gilroy Gardens, a local kid-friendly amusement park. We all have a great time there!

Jordan discovered his love of the ocean during our Hawaii trip this fall. As you can see, his expression is pure bliss.

Our Home in California

Our cozy 3 bedroom home is filled with light coming from over 4 skylights. We have a spacious front patio with a sandbox filled with toys. Our neighborhood is in a great school district with a diverse student and family population. We are near two large parks, one of them just down the street.

In the backyard we have a covered patio and a lush lawn for everyone to play.

There are two beautiful lakes and several hiking trails within a couple miles from our home.

We recently upgraded our son to a big boy bed. We are so excited to decorate a baby room!

We enjoy close friendships with our neighbors and the kids play outside together several days a week.

Our Family

We are so blessed that our families live so close to us. Both sets of grandparents live within 30 minutes from us, as do many of our siblings, cousins, and friends.

Johnhan comes from a large family with two older sisters and one younger brother. His family is devoutly Catholic and his parents take Jordan to Mass regularly. Jordan loves spending this quality time with them. Johnhan's older sister has 2 little boys and when the three boys get together, it is a zoo! The whole family is so excited to welcome one more little one into our adventures.

Jeanne is an only child who is incredibly close with her parents. Jeanne's mom used to be a teacher and her dad is a retired engineer. They love bringing Jordan to the library, encouraging his love of reading and learning. Jeanne's tight-knit, small family is so excited to double the fun with one more grandchild.

We are very lucky that we have a huge extended family nearby. We have 14 nieces and nephews and they are all excited to welcome your child into our lively family.

Grandma "Ah Ma" enjoys taking Jordan to Catholic Mass and teaching him bible stories.

Grandparents "Popo" and "Yeye" love going on family adventures and look forward to double the fun with one more grandchild. Here we are pedal boating at our local lake.

Letters from Our Friends & Family

Carol, her two boys Christian and Colin, and her husband Eric

My brother Johnhan and his wife Jeanne have had a family-centric outlook ever since they got together. I remember while dating they would often visit our parents and grandparents, and never missed one of our large family gatherings. This has continued, more so after their son Jordan was born, as they understand the importance of having the grandparents' and great-grandparents' involvement in their son's life. Our family gatherings now span 4 generations.

The values Johnhan and Jeanne have already instilled in Jordan, and the love they show him, are evident in how happy and vibrant Jordan is. I love watching my boys and Jordan play together, knowing that these cousins will grow up to be lifelong friends. My husband and I have such strong faith in Johnhan and Jeanne's ability to love and nurture that if anything were to happen to us, we'd want them to raise our two boys. We are so excited to welcome another little one to our large family.

Carol, Johnhan's older sister

Johnhan and my daughter-in-law Jeanne have been married for over 5 years now. We are so grateful that they found each other. Jeanne has a calm nature and is artistic. Johnhan is smart and handy around the house. They have a strong marriage based on open communication. We bring our grandson Jordan to Mass every week, where he experiences the church environment and receive God's blessings. Often Jordan plays with his two cousins Colin and Christian at my house. We love seeing these three boys together; it is beautiful, though messy!

Johnhan and Jeanne's decision to grow their family through adoption has been exciting for the whole family and we look forward to supporting and loving this beautiful young family. We truly believe Johnhan and Jeanne will be wonderful adoptive parents. We have already started praying for you and your baby. Take care, and God bless.

Jeanne's parents & Jordan

When we heard Jeanne and Johnhan are planning to adopt a second child, we were very happy and supportive of their decision. We are excited to welcome a new grandchild into our close-knit family!

Jeanne and Johnhan love children and are great parents. We hope they can grow their family and that our grandson Jordan will have a sibling to grow up with and experience all of life's adventures.

As grandparents, we are happy to help Jeanne and Johnhan as they embark on this journey. We are ready to love and cherish another grandchild and ready for our home to be even fuller with love and laughter.

Ellen & Steven, Jeanne's parents

Jeanne and Johnhan have big hearts and a lot of love to give. They both have a deep appreciation for what the gift of adoption would bring to their family. Jeanne is insightful and funny. She is great at building children's imagination, especially via mini-adventures. Johnhan is fun and excellent at reading a child's feelings and adapting the environment.

Jeanne and Johnhan are incredibly devoted to their family life; they are warm, genuine and caring individuals. Jeanne and Johnhan utilize the offerings of the bay area to experience new surroundings; adventurous day trips are opportunities to explore, learn and laugh. They are clear partners, a strong unit; they engage the child, go at the child's pace creating a fun and safe place. Their son Jordan is a bright, friendly, outgoing child. He is a clear product of his environment, a house filled with love, acceptance and learning. Jeanne and Johnhan are committed to expanding their hearts and family unit to include a new member through adoption. I hope to see this fun and silly family grow and look forward to more pumpkin patches and birthday parties with Jordan and the new baby.

Mary and Jeanne have been close friends for over a decade!

Letters from Our Friends & Family

We have known Jeanne and Johnhan for the past four years. They are not only our next-door neighbors, but also our good friends. Jordan, their adorable two-year-old son, and our two young daughters play together on a near daily basis. Our younger daughter also goes to the same daycare as Jordan.

Meera and Ram with their girls, with special appearance by Moana

We have gotten to know Jeanne and Johnhan over time by spending many evenings together, after work and school, watching our kids play in the front yard. As parents, Jeanne and Johnhan are caring, affectionate, patient, and responsible. Jordan is always eating delicious, nutritious homemade food, including Jeanne's famous smoothie popsicles! Jeanne and Johnhan also spend much of their free time being active, taking Jordan on bike rides, walks, or outings to gardens, parks, child-friendly museums, and beaches.

Based on our experience with Jeanne and Johnhan, we wholeheartedly recommend them as adoptive parents.

Meera & Ram, Next-door neighbors

Jeanne and Johnhan also share many of the same parenting values as we do so I know their home is filled with stability, love, laughter and joy. They are attentive and engaging, cherish quality time with family, provide a safe, secure and loving environment, and offer as many opportunities as possible to help children thrive in learning and growing. They give room for their son to grow and learn for himself, but also set good boundaries so that he can do it safely. The list of people we trust with our children is very short and Jeanne and Johnhan are on the top of our list. They have shown great patience, kindness and care with our children and we know they are happy, loved, and safe when with them.

Jeanne and Johnhan have special hearts that are ready and willing to welcome another member into their life and also a very loving village of family and friends who are there to support them as they grow their wonderful family.
