I'm excited (and insanely nervous) that you're reading my profile. I'm thrilled at the possibility of expanding my family. I appreciate the decision you are trying to make and thank you for considering me to be your child's adoptive mother.

A little about me: I'm a single woman originally from Massachusetts, where I was a competitive figure skater throughout my childhood. I am a PROUD alumna of Howard University where I was a member of Phi Sigma Pi National Honor Fraternity. I also hold a Masters of Education from Temple University. I am dedicated to public service and spend at least one day a week volunteering with various children's causes. I am fun-loving, patient and compassionate. I have a passion for life and an adventurous spirit.

My Home: I live in Landover, MD in a family friendly townhouse community. There are plenty of grassy areas where the neighborhood children play. There are neighborhood parks and a community center within walking distance and a sports & learning complex only 2 miles away. I love being only 9 miles away from the zoo, museums and cultural opportunities in Washington, DC and look forward to sharing these experiences with my child.

When I am not working as the Director of Education for the Design-Build Institute of America or volunteering at the Ronald McDonald House, I LOVE to travel!

My Family: My family, both biological and family by choice, cannot wait to welcome a child into our lives.

What the grandparents have to say.... Through the years we have recognized how fortunate we are to have a daughter like Mihisha – caring, passionate and loving. She is smart, sensitive and has a natural gift for relating to children. She has always shown respect and caring for others and is truly special. We know she will be an amazing mom!! This child will be lucky to have her in his life and share a loving family with a wonderful mom and “grandparents”. ~G-Diddy and Grammy

What the “Aunties” have to say....

Auntie Nicole.... Who is more better suited to be a MOM than Mihisha? She has as zest for life and a youthful spirit. Her ability to be attentive and organized will help her manage motherhood, but her ability to love and nurture will make her a great MOM. I am over the moon with the excitement of being an Auntie and God Mommy! I feel honored and will be ready to support Mihisha and "our" baby through the years. I can't wait to take him on his first airplane ride and many travel adventures!!

Auntie Cheryl.... “I am thrilled to get to be an “Auntie” to Mihisha’s baby-to-be! He will be loved, cherished and supported. Mihisha has been an excellent godmother to my son and will be a phenomenal mom. Plus, I'll get a chance to spoil her little darling rotten. I can't wait!”

Auntie Lexie.... “The thought of Mihisha becoming a mother honestly brings tears to my eyes! She is designed to be a mom and this baby will be loved and cared for beyond measure. I look forward to and STAND READY to be an auntie to our future little one. I am anxiously awaiting my opportunity to deliver the ultimate spoiling moments!

Auntie Crystal.... “I'm so excited to welcome a new child to our family!!!! Yes, I said “family!!!” I can't wait to babysit and plan tons of fun outings. Plus, I look forward to sharing my love of reading by exploring a world of children's literature!”

Auntie Allie.... Just being able to watch Mihisha light up throughout this whole adoption process has been great to see. She is one of the most selfless people that I know, and I think that is one of the top qualities a mother should possess. There is no doubt in my mind that she will be the best mother. Selfishly, I also cannot wait to spoil her little boy rotten! I can confidently say that the “Aunties” are just as excited as Mihisha for her little one’s arrival!

ShayShay.... Even ShayShay would be willing to share the couch....as long as it's not her spot.
