

A Life of Unconditional
Love, Family, Happiness, and Adventure Awaits

Thank you for reading this!

Hi, I'm Hailey – thank you so much for taking the time to learn a little about me. I am truly inspired by your love for your baby, your strength, and your courage as you explore what is best for you and your child. I hope that my words help you get to know me a little bit and envision the loving mom I would be to your child.

Only you will know when you find the right person to adopt your child, and I have enormous respect for how hard this decision must be. If I am the right one for you, I look forward to being on this journey together.

A little about me and my dream of becoming a mom!

With my oldest nephew Andrew when he was a baby

With my friends' kids Lilly and Luke -- they are so excited for me to become a mom!

A family sailing trip (in the rain!) when I was 10-years old. I am so blessed to have an incredible, close-knit family who will welcome your baby with open arms!

I live in a wonderful New Jersey town and I'm fortunate to have tons of family and friends all around! They are an amazing support system and a constant source of joy, love, laughter, connection, and adventure.

My mom Bev and my brother Todd and his family (wife Lisa, kids Sky, Quinn, Andrew, and Kevin) all live nearby and they will play an every day part of your child's life. I'm very close with my extended family, too, and I have cousins, aunts, and uncles up and down the East Coast. They can't wait to welcome your child to our family!

My lifelong dream has been to become a mom and raise a family. For a number of years I was dating a man who had children from a previous marriage, and I became very close to his family. We broke up before we had children together, and I am not presently in a relationship. I'm open to finding love in the future with someone who shares my love of family and would love your child as much as I will, but I know with all my heart that now is the time for me to become a mom.

I have been trying to become a mom for some time, including a number of unsuccessful fertility treatments. I think families of all kinds are beautiful and don't believe biological connections are what matters. I have many relatives and close friends who have created their incredible families through adoption -- love, support, and close bonds are what's important in life, not genetics. I promise you that I would surround your child with unconditional love, doing everything I could to provide the best life possible for him or her.

I'm so grateful for my family – we genuinely love spending time together and we always support each other, no matter what. My entire family is ready and waiting to shower your child with love and welcome him or her to the family!

Family dinners, family vacations, and extended family holiday celebrations were a cherished part of my childhood and they continue to this day! I can't wait to share these traditions with your child, and create new traditions too.

An extended family gathering with my mom, Bev, my brother, Todd, and my aunts, uncles, and cousins to celebrate my grandfather's incredible life

My Family and Friends are Excited to Embrace Your Child!

My family loves celebrating Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Easter together!

My mom, Bev, is my best friend! I'm so glad she lives nearby. We talk on the phone every day, get together all the time, and enjoy family vacations together every summer. She is an amazing woman and role model, and a wonderful "Nana" to my nieces and nephews (Andrew, Kevin, Sky, and Quinn). I know she'll be similarly incredible with your child. She's up for anything, fun, kind, and thoughtful – my friends adore her!

My older brother, Todd, lives close too, and we all enjoy spending time with one another. I am grateful to Todd and his wife Lisa for giving me three awesome nephews and an amazing niece (they blended their family – Todd had two sons, and Lisa had a son and a daughter). I'm so proud of Andrew, Kevin, Sky, and Quinn, and I'm happy to have lived near them as they've grown up. My brother is an incredible dad, and he will be a wonderful role model for your child, too.

I have many friends who live in my neighborhood, and it's great being an "honorary aunt" to their kids. One of the things I love the most about my town is its incredible diversity and inclusivity -- everyone is welcomed, accepted, respected, valued, and included.

A Glimpse into My Life

I can't wait to share my love of music with your child!

My cousin Brit, her husband Trey, and their adorable one-year-old daughter Magnolia

My mom Bev and dad John taught me to live fully, love deeply, and dedicate myself to making this world a better place. I think it's important to work hard, and equally important to have fun and live each day to the fullest. For me, no day is complete without friends and family in it, whether that means a phone call just to say hi, a funny "this made me think of you" text, a quick bite to eat out, or a casual get-together at a friend's house.

With my friend's son Luke, who lives just a few minutes away from me

On vacation with my mom Bev in South Carolina

Making homemade Valentine's Day cards with my friend's daughter, Lilly

With my cousin Brooke in North Carolina

Traveling is important to me – I love exploring cities and small towns, and visiting beaches, mountains, and everything in between. England, Bermuda, Colorado, and Maine are some of my favorite places to visit.

Paddleboarding in Bermuda with my brother Todd (our mom Bev took the photos)

My life today...

Filled with family, friends, and adventure

A trip to San Diego with one of my best friends, Reilly

LONDON!!!

Playing cards with my nephews, Andrew and Kevin, my brother Todd, and my mom, Bev

When my family gets together, we love to play games, share stories about our days, and catch up on everything going on in each others' lives.

Financially secure and ready to be a loving, devoted, and present Mom!

Education has always been incredibly important to me and I am deeply committed to providing children from all backgrounds with opportunities and experiences to learn, grow, and succeed. I've always loved working with children and started my career as a seventh- and eighth-grade science teacher.

After years of hard work, today I am a College Vice President. My colleagues are some of the coolest, smartest, and kindest people I've ever met, and I feel so lucky to have a job that allows me to make a positive difference in the world.

I'm so grateful to have a job I love at a family-friendly college, which will make it possible for me to be a hands-on mom

My career is established so now I can reap the benefits and be a totally hands-on mom. The college community is close-knit, family-friendly, and incredibly supportive of families of all shapes and sizes—we understand and value the importance of work-life balance!

Many of my coworkers have young children who love to play together, and the entire college campus community will welcome your child with open and loving arms.

My home and my pets

My home has a large, fenced-in back yard where I love to play with my dog Henry, enjoy meals on the patio, read a great book, and hang out with friends and family. The family room has sliding doors that lead right to the deck and yard, so we're constantly enjoying fresh air and sunshine.

I live within walking distance of the public library, shops and restaurants, parks and playgrounds, the local pool, and the elementary school. Many of my close friends live just minutes away, and the school system is among the best in the nation.

The day I bought my house

Henry is my two-year-old rescue dog – he's an energetic, loyal, and loving Lab mix. He loves attention and my friends and coworkers adore him.

My cats Cougar and Puma are brother and sister – I rescued them from a local shelter about 7 years ago.

A local 5-K race to support the fight against cancer

There are so many parks and outdoor spaces that I can't wait to explore with your child.

The library has an incredible children's section and visits from authors near and far.

There's a coffee shop, where I always run into good friends. I've lived in the same town for many years, so I'm lucky to have a huge circle of friends nearby all the time.

There is a community farm, where you can pick flowers, apples, and strawberries; go for a hayride in the pumpkin patch; and feed the goats and horses.

The local theater has musicals, kids' shows, acrobats, great musicians, amazing dancers and more. There's always something interesting going on.

An amazing town to raise kids in!

We have so many parks and playgrounds in my town – I can't wait to share them with your child

My niece Sky and nephew Quinn goofing off at a park

My promise to you and your child

I will love your child fiercely and unconditionally, doing everything I possibly can to provide him or her with a wonderful life.

I will encourage and nurture your child's unique talents, interests, and qualities, always valuing and supporting his or her individuality.

I will ensure that your child has a childhood filled with love, wonder, adventure, learning, and joy.

I will be forever dedicated to ensuring your child's health, happiness, and success.

Your child and I will always celebrate with love and deepest gratitude the extraordinary birth mother who made it possible for us to become a family.

A few closing thoughts...

Thank you reading about me and considering whether I would be right for you and your child, now and into the future. Hopefully this has given you a sense of who I am as a person and who I will be as a parent. I have always dreamed of being a mom, and I would be honored if you chose me to adopt your incredible child. Please call or text me anytime at 203-912-6640 so we can get to know each other.
