Our Story

Children have always been a priority in our lives. Alana grew up working as a baby-sitter and camp counselor. She dreamed of having children of her own. Michael volunteered mentoring high school students in robotics. Soon after we met, we knew that we wanted to have a family together.

Three years into our marriage, we were over-joyed when Alana gave birth to our son Isaac. Smart, easy going, and fun-loving, Isaac inherited our love for children, and is eager to welcome a sibling into our family.

Unfortunately, the road to growing our family has been a difficult one. We have suffered two miscarriages and a stillbirth, and are now looking to welcome another child to our family through adoption.

As parents, we can imagine how overwhelming it must feel to try and choose an adoptive family for your child. The best way we can think of to put your mind at ease is to tell you about the loving home that we have already created for our son Isaac.

In our home, hugs and the words “I love you” are exchanged often – first thing in the morning, before bed at night, and oftentimes throughout the day. Isaac knows that he can always come to us with any question and we will do our best to answer honestly.

Our home is also one in which love, learning, and family are top priorities.

Homework is done together around the dinner table. We enjoy board games, cards, baking, and reading together. Our son participates in Little League and soccer, and is encouraged to pursue whatever other interests he may develop as he grows. Michael volunteers on the PTA and as a soccer coach for our Isaac’s team.

The child we adopt will be welcomed into the family, not only by us, but by an extended family of aunts, uncles, grandparents, and some really

Meet Our Family

Alana

Alana is a loving mom to our 7-year old son Isaac and looks forward to welcoming another child to our home.

Professionally, she works at a local community center where she is the director of a program that helps the elderly with free services. She loves that her job involves helping people every day. She enjoys developing a connection with her clients and is pleased to be able to provide them with emotional support and practical assistance. She is also grateful that her employer offers onsite child care, allowing her to be close by to our son Isaac and any future child that will join our family.

In her spare time, Alana enjoys cooking, baking, and doing craft projects with our son and nieces. She also likes playing card games and board games as a family.

Meet Our Family

Michael

Michael is an involved parent, coaching our son Isaac's soccer team and participating actively in the local PTA (Parent-Teacher Association).

Professionally, he works as a project engineer at a Long Island based software development company. His job involves problem-solving every day, skills that serve him well as a parent.

We are fortunate that Michael's job provides him the flexibility needed for him to adjust to our family's needs. He can shift his work hours to attend a PTA meeting, or work from home if our son is sick.

In his spare time, Michael enjoys bicycling, making minor home repairs, and playing strategy board games – a hobby he is beginning to share with our 7-year-old son.

Meet Our Family

Isaac

Isaac is our smart, funny, caring seven-year-old son. He adores his cousins and has always wanted a brother or sister of his own.

Isaac enjoys soccer, baseball, board games, baking and crafts. He gets along well with other children. When he has playdates, his friends' parents always tell us how nicely he plays with their children. On a recent report card, his teacher described him as "a friend to all."

We know that Isaac will make an amazing big brother, and hope that through adoption we will be able to give him the sibling he has always wanted.

Meet Our Family

Grandparents

Our son Isaac and his future brother or sister are lucky to have loving grandparents who enjoy spending time together as a family.

Meet Our Family

Cousins

Isaac adores his cousins and we know a future brother or sister will too!

We are fortunate that Alana's brother and his family live close by and Isaac has grown up with our nieces as playmates. Ariana and Hayley are remarkable with younger children, and will be delighted to welcome a new baby cousin to the family.

Isaac also enjoys practicing being a big brother by being a patient and loving big cousin to our younger relatives.
