MY ADOPTION PROFILE

Hello!

I want you to know that I am in awe of you and the immense love you have for your child. I have tremendous respect for you and the decision you are making. I hope that my profile will give you a sense of who I am and the life and love that I would provide a child.

About Me

I am a woman who places God and family above all else. I grew up in a small town in Central Illinois that was so small we only had 1 stoplight! One of my favorite childhood memories was going to Friday night football games and attending the after parties. In my opinion, there is nothing better than cooking hot dogs over a bonfire.

When I am not working, I enjoy spending time with my family, cheering on the Illini, going to movies, reading, and trying the newest restaurants in my area. I love finding new ways to be eco-friendly and am researching how to create a compost in my backyard.

Over the years I have lived in many great cities: St. Louis, Salt Lake City, Dallas, and most recently Chicago. Chicago is my favorite and will always hold a special place in my heart. There were endless things to do: concerts, sporting events, city tours, the Lincoln Park Zoo, and some of the best restaurants I have ever been to.

After a brief stint as an academic advisor, I went back to school and graduated with a degree in accounting. Currently, I work for a large insurance brokerage company that allows me to work from home full time. I am fortunate because my employer is very supportive of working parents. They provide time off for new parents and work around their schedules so they can pick up/drop off their kids from school.

My Family

My Parents (Grandpa & Nana). Two of the greatest people that I know.

Annual Christmas Eve picture with all of my cousins.

These are my nieces and nephews. They are VERY excited to get a new cousin.

Dinner with my sisters & brother-in-law.

My Friends

I have known these two since I was in high school. This is me visiting them and their wives in Colorado.

Paint Class with my sister and friends.

Seeing Wicked with my sister and my friend Sara.

I have known Chet & his family my entire life and it was so fun to see a Cubs game with him, my sister, and his son.

My Promise

As a mother, I cannot wait to give a child a wide range of experiences such as growing a garden, reading books at the library, playing in youth sport leagues, taking art or music classes, going to Illini basketball games, and traveling (Disney World here we come!).

If you decide to place your child for adoption, and choose me, I promise to nurture his or her relationship with God, provide unconditional love, surround him or her with a large circle of family and friends, support his or her dreams and ambitions, and to honor you and share your story.

Thank you for taking the time to get to know me. If you have any additional questions, please feel free to reach out.
