

About Us

We have a wonderful marriage built on a foundation of trust, communication, compassion, mutual respect, and unconditional love. We feel that we bring out the best in each other. Our philosophy for our marriage, is that we always talk things out, say we love each other every day, and we always believed that there is nothing we can't overcome together.

We enjoy spending time together at Disneyland, going to the movies, and taking our dog Oscar to the dog park to watch him run around with his friends.

On August 31, 2012, we got engaged in front of Sleeping Beauty's castle at Disneyland.

12-28-2013

We got married December 28, 2013 surrounded by our family and friends in an intimate ceremony.

Our Home

We purchased our cozy 3 bed-2 bath home together in December 2012.

We moved in just in time to celebrate our second Christmas together. Our home is comfortable and centered around our family and friends. We love cooking for our family and spending quality time with them. Our neighborhood is very family oriented, where children ride their bikes up and down sidewalks and play in their front yards. We are surrounded by excellent public and private schools and several very nice parks. We are located close to the city's downtown area where many seasonal and cultural events take place throughout the year, as well as farmer's markets and street fairs. We want to be able to share all the resources our community has to offer, such as amusement parks, beaches, zoos, aquariums, museums, and much more.

After earning my Bachelors Degree in Fine Art, I freelanced part-time as a wedding and portrait photographer. I also got a full-time position as an Administrative Assistant at a local university. I worked diligently and earned a Masters in Counseling, and then a Specialist in Education in School Psychology. I currently work as a School Psychologist within the public school system.

After high school I coached high school football for 3 years while attending community college. I started working part-time at UPS, where I spent 10 years rising to a management role. Working nights and attending college during the day, I earned my Bachelors in Business Administration, with an emphasis in Technology and Operations Management from a CSU. I went on to earn a Masters of Arts in Management in 2015. I currently hold a position as an Operations Manager, for an industry leading door distribution center.

From the first moment I met Marcos, I knew he was the one for me. The first thing I noticed about him was that he has such a great sense of humor. He is always making me laugh. He is also so incredibly kind and caring. He has such a big heart and is never afraid to show his emotions. He is my rock and constant protector, and I know that he will be the same for our child. He is also very dedicated to our immediate and extended family and there is nothing that he would not do for them. Every day I love him more and more.
