

Jessica and Rob

Dear Potential Birth Parents,

We're Jessica and Rob. We first met in 2010 at a birthday party, where our friends plotted to bring us together believing we would make a great match. Things don't always happen according to plan, and although we did meet that day, it was not until several months later that we met again and spoke for hours before going on our first date. We do believe that timing is everything.

Rob balances me. He reminds me that the unknown can be a fabulous adventure and if something doesn't go as expected, it just means something better is about to happen. Jessica is always there for me.

In the last 12 years together she has opened my eyes to new experiences and adventures. Life has many wonderful moments but is also filled with unexpected challenges and difficulties that we navigate through together.

We have always wished to have children and while we have struggled to have a child naturally, this challenge has not diminished our desire to start a family. We have so much love to give and want to make our world complete by bringing a child into our hearts and the wonderful life we have created.

“Life isn’t about waiting for the storm to pass. It’s about learning to dance in the rain.”

Jessica...

Jessica has a successful career in data software. She takes pride in her work and enjoys the time with her clients and coworkers. Jessica is fiercely loyal and driven. She strives to get things done. She does anything and everything to make her family and friends feel happy and at peace.

Jessica spent the last two years learning how to cook. She loves to try new restaurants and explore new foods. She is an avid reader and spends her time volunteering to read to children in shelters. The beach is her happy place. From Maine to New Jersey and the Long Island shore, she loves being by the water and can't wait to create memories by the beach with a child.

Her thoughtfulness, patience, and warmth will make her an excellent mom. She shares so much of herself with everyone in her life. I have always known Jessica to be a kind and caring person who lives life to the fullest.

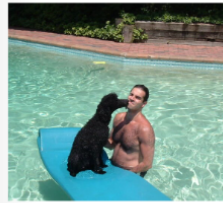

Rob...

I am so lucky to have a man like Rob in my life. He is a dedicated, hard worker. Rob has a successful career in financial software and has always been a provider. It is extremely important to him to make sure his family is safe and stable. Rob is warm and caring. He is a great listener and enjoys helping others.

Rob is fun and loves to make people laugh. He enjoys being outside in nature and taking long walks. Rob is well-traveled as he lived abroad for many years. He enjoys eating food from different cultures and experiencing all life has to offer. He loves listening to music and watching sports. There are so many experiences that he cannot wait to share with a child.

I greatly admire Rob's unselfish and loving nature, and I am so proud to have him in my life. I cannot wait to begin the journey of parenthood with him. I know he will be an incredible dad.

Jessica's Family...

I am so lucky to have two amazing women in my life to turn to and lean on. My mom, Sheila, is a retired teacher. She is a caretaker above all else. She is always asking how she can help and is always looking to lessen any burden I have. She is an incredible mom, friend, and grandmother.

My sister, Meredith, is married to Jeremy. Together they have two children. Aleena is almost 4 years old and she is the light of our lives. They just recently had a new baby, Devin. My family is so excited to continue growing!

Aleena is a sweet, loving, sensitive, funny, and smart child. She is amazingly verbal, and has been able to fully converse since before she was two. She loves wearing crowns and tiaras and loves to make us laugh. She will be the best big cousin!

Rob's Family...

My parents, Harriet and Steven, have been happily married for 60 years. They are dedicated to their marriage and are amazing role models. My father is a retired dentist who loves animals and currently volunteers at a dog shelter where he donates his time walking and taking care of abandoned dogs. He also enjoys crossword puzzles and doing gardening work outside. He is always there for you if you need a favor. My mother was a stay at home mom taking care of her kids. After we left the house, she was my father's assistant in the office. She is a warm, caring, and very sociable person. She is a great listener and always there for her children, family, and friends when someone needs to talk.

My sister, Beth, is a hydraulics engineer. She is one of my best friends and we enjoy spending time with her. She is going to be the most fun, loving aunt. My mom and dad are wonderful people who cherish family more than anything. They are so excited to be grandparents. I know they will love this baby beyond compare.

We hope that in reading our profile and looking at the special times that we have shared, while also navigating life's unexpected turns and disappointments together, you know that you are reading about a couple that will devote themselves to this child and never take them for granted. If we are fortunate enough to adopt, this child will be so loved because we are generous, kind hearted, responsible, and have so much to give.

We promise to raise a baby to love others, be kind and compassionate, and always be willing to help others in need. Our home is filled with family and laughter. This child's well being, happiness, and success in life will be our number one priority.

We are excited about this new phase in our journey together and look forward to bringing a child into our lives. We are honored to be considered as adoptive parents and we would love the opportunity to meet with you.

Warmest regards,
Jessica and Rob
