Antwaine's strength has always been his best quality. Always willing to help anyone, even a stranger. He loves food, especially a good steak or burger. He is also physically active, he goes to the gym three times a week. At times he can be very quiet, but that's good because he paying attention to everything around him. The love that he has for my niece shows just how great of a dad he will be.

Antwaine Love's Tiffany's

- Laugh
- Nurturing Skills
- Attention to details
- Generosity

Tiffany's biggest strengths are her honesty, ability to relate to and help other people, and her willingness to try new things. She is a teacher at heart. She is always reading and looking for way to improve our quality of life. She is always setting goals, doing vision boards, and watching inspiration teachers, speakers, and preachers. She will be a terrific mother and has been very active in the lives of our youngest family members.

Tiffany and Antwaine met on July 9, 2013. They were introduced by a friend of Antwaine and cousin of Tiffany. Their relationship started over the phone because they lived in two different states. They discovered they had many things in common; they are both Virgos, they both have artistic talents, they both love self help books, and they have the same outlook in life.

On July 21, they had their first date. A walk on the beach in New Haven, through a private community. They shared on the pier overlooking the water. They ate lunch at Sage Seafood restaurant as a live band played. The meal was followed by a stroll on Yale's campus. After more walking and more talking the date came to an end.

-Tiffany says she believes her late grandmother sent Antwaine to her as a blessing.

Tiffany and Antwaine's next adventure came just two months later when the couple would travel for ten days on a cruise along the Mediterranean. On the cruise they would stop in Barcelona, The South of France, Monaco, and Italy. The trip was a defining time for the new couple. They would learn so much about each other and begin to shape their future together.

-Antwaine says Tiffany is his Dream girl and has all the qualities he wants in a woman; even on his long list.

But all things haven't been perfect for these two. They argue periodically, as all couples do. They have encountered hard times and experienced the loss of loved ones - together.

They believe in GOD, The Universe, they believe in Love, and they believe in each other. Great communication has been the key to their success.

Thank you for reviewing our profile. We are Tiffany and Antwaine from the suburbs of New York. Antwaine and I have been together almost 4 years and married for a little over 2 years. From the beginning of our relationship we started traveling. While traveling we picked up a love for food. Our Favorite places to eat are mom and pop restaurants, especially the ones in and around our town. On Sundays and sometimes after work we hop in the car and take a drive to nowhere, just to take our minds away from the day to day. We are both working professionals and have each been working at our jobs for over 10 years and more. I work in the medical field and Antwaine works for an engineering company.

Both of our moms and some of our siblings live within an hour of our house, in opposite directions. We make time to visit both or have them over to our house for dinner. In the summer we enjoy weakened trips to Boston and attending our annual family reunions. Antwaine's family has a big family reunion every year in different states, mine is more like a small family and friends gathering in August down in Atlantic City. We go to Atlantic City every year on my late grandmother's birthday. She loved it there so we continued to go even after she passed away.

I have fibroids and Adenomyosis, which are very painful on a monthly basis. They have also caused problems in my past pregnancies. Along with the two conditions, I get severely sick with a life threatening disease called Hyper emesis Gravidarum once we conceive. After our last pregnancy in 2014 we decided that adoption was the best choice for us.

Love is the number one thing that we have for each other and that is the number one thing we can offer your child. Although we have stable job and a beautiful place to live, love is the foundation of our lives. Growing up we didn't have everything we wanted but we had everything we needed, our Mother's and Grandmother's love. I never wanted for much, my grandmother was a strong independent women that paved the way for me and my family to grow. Antwaine's Mom worked as a nurse for many years to support him and his sister. It wasn't easy for them but they made a way and gave us so much love. We would love to take that same love and share it with your baby.

As parents we will provide your baby with unconditional love. He or she will be raised with kindness, respect and compassion. We will share their adoption journey with them; from the beginning. They will be aware of the beautiful sacrifice you made for them to have their best opportunity in life. As your child grows we are happy to stay in contact with you, but we will always be respectful of the amount and type of contact that you desire.

Our hope is that this page has given you an idea of the life we'd like to share with your child. We cannot imagine the difficult choices that you face, but we are grateful that you would consider us as potential parents.

Sincerely,
Tiffany and Antwaine
